2015 Finger Lakes Dry White Springs Vineyard Riesling Morten Hallgren had been making the wines at Carl Fribolin's White Springs Vineyard in Geneva before he purchased the 42-acre property in 2012 and made its winery the base for Ravines. He is getting the hang of this gently sloped block of riesling, producing a softly assertive wine with tension between delicate lemon-lime fruit and tangy, salt-flecked, mineral persistence. It would benefit from some cellar time to serve with grilled barramundi.
